Taft Ready for Finish.

Day of Rest Restores Voice and Strength.

Will Carry Campaign Into Indiana.

Joins Taft Club and Reviews Parade.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

CINCINNATI, Oct. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Aside from joining the Citizens' Taft Club of Cincinnati, to which he made a noon-day address, and reviewing a parade and convention of the Masons in this city, Judge Taft spent a comparatively quiet day.

He arrived at 7 o'clock this morning, and will leave at the same hour tomorrow morning for three days of activity in Indiana, after which he will travel in New York for the last week of the campaign.

Dr. J. J. Richardson of Washington, the throat specialist, who is traveling with Judge Taft, said tonight that his patient exhibited wonderful powers of recuperation. He believes the candidate will be able to negotiate the many speechmaking appointments which the National Committee has made for him between now and the end of the campaign.

The day's rest had a very favorable effect on Mr. Taft's condition, according to the doctor, and he will start to fulfill his engagements in the Hoosier State tomorrow with a good voice and fresh energy.

Although it was decided Monday and announced by Chairman Hitchcock that the candidate would not go into Connecticut, the plan is understood to have been changed to the extent of having Mr. Taft make one speech in that State next Monday. Just where the effort is to be made has not yet been decided.

After being enrolled as a member of the Taft Club and introduced to the group, Judge Taft said he believed that in matters of this sort it would not be improper in him to state that he should vote with the club. Seriously speaking, he said nothing had given him so much real gratification as the movement of his friends and neighbors and fellow-townsmen. He commented on the usefulness of the organization, saying that the carrying of the political discussion to the home by persons who personally knew the candidate was far more effective than having such words done by statesmen.

The candidate spoke of his former residence in the city, his four years' absence in the Philippines, and his return to Washington, ending with a smile, he hoped it would be unnecessary for him to move to the city during the next four years, although he should always maintain his home in Cincinnati.

His reception was an expression of exceeding cordiality and, after he had received the members of the club and the many others presented, he returned to the C. P. Taft residence.

Senator Dixon Tells President Republicans Will Win Except in Colorado and Nevada.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—President Roosevelt today held a long conference with Senator Dixon of Montana, chairman of the Republican Speakers' Bureau, at Chicago.

Senator Dixon gave glowingly optimistic reports of the campaign in the West, and told the President Judge Taft would carry that section with the possible exception of Colorado and Nevada.

UTAH PARTY WITHOUT TICKET.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 21.—The Utah Supreme Court late this afternoon denied the application of W. J. Barrett et al. for a writ of mandate compelling Secretary of State Charles S. Tingey to certify to the Republican ticket.

ALL ONE WAY.

BIG TAFT VICTORY ON COAST IS PREDICTED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana arrived in Chicago today, certain that William H. Taft will win the electoral vote in nearly all of the thirteen Western States visited by the Senator on his campaign tour, now concluding.

Although contrary to his policy, Senator Beveridge gave out from the house of Augustus N. Eddy, his father-in-law, where he is stopping, a detailed statement with regard to political conditions in these States. He admits Montana, Oregon, Nevada, Colorado and Nebraska are close, with chances favoring Taft in nearly all of them, and says that Oklahoma would have gone Republican had the campaign there been begun at an earlier date. He also brings cheering news from Missouri. In his statement, Senator Beveridge said:

"Minnesota is overwhelmingly for Taft. North Dakota will certainly give Taft 20,000 over Bryan, and probably more.

SWEEPING VICTORY.

HITCHCOCK SURE OF "DOUBTFUL" STATES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—On the eve of his last campaign visit to Chicago, where he will remain two days, Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican National Committee expressed himself more confidently than at any time since he assumed the management of the Republican campaign. He declared today that New York was absolutely safe for the national and state tickets and added that he was confident that California, Oregon and Washington would give large Republican pluralities.

He was satisfied, also, he said, with conditions in Colorado, Nebraska and Archbishop Harty, of Manila, who strongly advocates and prays for election of Taft to save Philippines from chaos.

Presidential electors on the "Taft-Liberal" ticket. The decision was unanimous.

The decision involved a unique point. The "Taft-Liberal" party is the name adopted by the American, or anti-church party in Salt Lake City and county for the purpose of carrying the Republican Presidential electors on their State and county ticket. The Republican Presidential electors, thus endorsed and nominated by the American party, withdrew their names, and the action was brought to compel the electors to carry the name of the Republican party. It being the contention of the American party leaders that nominees could not in this manner designate those who should or should not vote for them. Today's decision therefore leaves the "Taft-Liberal" party without electors and makes it impossible for Republicans-Americans to vote a straight ticket.

BRYAN VISITS OHIO.

Nebraska Makes Sixteen Desperate Speeches and Has Hard Day in Taft's State.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

MARIETTA (O.) Oct. 21.—Great crowds and lusty cheering was Ohio's greeting to William J. Bryan today.

Just before the Democratic candidate passed over the line into West Virginia late tonight, he expressed himself as exceedingly well pleased with the reception accorded him in the native State of the Republican candidate for President.

Although the day was a hard one for him, Mr. Bryan exhibited no signs of fatigue. Inspired by the fact that he literally was carrying his warfare into the camp of his political enemy, he spoke with a vigor that even those who have been with him throughout the campaign could not fail to note.

While still in bed this morning, a newspaper was handed into his state-room and Mrs. Bryan read to him a dispatch stating that the New York Central Railroad system was threatening to employ with reduction in wages if he was elected. This was his cue for the day, and he fired broadside after broadside into the Republicans in criticism of their campaign tactics.

Sixteen speeches were made by the candidate today.

THE POLITICAL WATCH TOWER.

Justice Melvin, appointed by Gov. Gillett to take the place left vacant by the death of Justice McFarrland, is sitting on a member of the Supreme Court for the first time in Los Angeles.

Mr. Bryan has ever felt it his privilege to clap his hands in a smug, satisfied attitude, the while accusing the Republican party of every crime in the category. His accusation, that the Republicans intend to debauch the voters with money, illegally contributed by the law-breaking corporations, is not only false, but has no reason for believing it to be true.

He is much more concerned with his own prospects for election to the Presidency than he is with the ethics of accusing even of crime and racialism, who, while not abrogating to himself the right to believe in the righteousness of his cause, is nevertheless trying to do their duty honestly and conscientiously.

"As a candidate and a Chauvinist, I would have to quote the Scriptures. He evidently has forgotten what happened to the Pharisees who stood and prayed thus with him."

"God, I think that I am not as other men are."

"It is politics in other affairs. It is a good plan to scrutinize closely those who are yelling, 'stop thief,' the loud-est."

TAFT IS HOPE OF FILIPINOS.

Chaplain Casey Tells Needs of Islands.

Archbishop Harty Prays for Republican Victory.

Democratic Supreme Court Judge Agrees.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Oct. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Rev. Joseph Casey, chaplain of the first infantry, U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Wash., who came here to attend the cornerstone blessing of the $2,000,000 Catholic Cathedral by the Papal delegate, said today that he had observed Judge Taft's work as Governor of the Philippines, from which country he returned recently, and after praising Taft's achievements, said:

"Americans in the Philippines are almost unanimous for Taft for President."

"Archbishop J. J. Harty of Manila, privately said to me:

"I am convinced that Mr. Bryan is a very able and good man, and a most renowned orator, but I pray earnestly to God that Gov. Taft is elected, because he knows the needs of the Philippines Islands and my dear Filipinos, and will help us in every way possible, while Mr. Bryan, if he should live up to the Democratic declaration, would merely produce chaos, unrest and most likely a terrible insurrection, as our ordinary Filipinos, while good religious people, are not ready yet to govern themselves, and will not be for many years. In fact, we are better off under the present form of government than we ever could be under absolute independence, because now we have the powerful and generous United States behind us."

Father Casey continued:

"I couldn't help noticing that Mr. Taft was always just to the Catholic church in the Philippines. He early realized that such recognition as the Filipinos had was carried to them by the Catholic priests, hence, as his aim as Governor of the islands was to advance civilization, naturally he desired to enlist the aid of the Catholic church behind us."

"Judge Tracy of the Supreme Court of the Philippines said:

"Though I have been a lifelong Democrat, still I want to see Taft the next President of the United States. I believe the Philippines Islands and the Filipinos are the correct ones."

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—William Haywood, secretary of the Republican National Committee, in charge of headquarters, today issued a scathing denial of charges by William J. Bryan and Democratic sympathizers that the Republican managers had received large contributions from unlawful sources for the purpose of "buying" the election for William H. Taft and the Republican ticket.

"It is a little surprising," said Mr. Haywood, "that a man who lays claim to the high standard of ethics that Mr. Bryan does should stalk through the country maligning every one of his political opponents in a manner little short of billingsgate."

"Consider for a moment that Mr. Bryan's accusation, if believed by the American people, would brand Mr. Taft and all his campaign managers as men devoid of the common principles of integrity."

"I credit this oratorical candidate one would have to believe that Mr. Bryan and his motley crew of Murphy, Crokers, Sullivan, Haskell and other gentry who surround him, and who are prominent in his campaign, are a monopoly on all the decency extant."

YALE DEMS FOR TAFT.

College Men Refuse to Deliver Party Club to Bryan.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Oct. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—The Yale Democratic Club tried to turn itself into a Bryan Club today and found itself in the breakers of disunion.

F. O. Mason of Chicago, head of the club, said that he could not take office in the new club because he was going to vote for Taft, although he was a Democrat.

Volius H. Sullivan of Chicago, son of Roger Sullivan, whom Bryan made a national figure, did not think that office seekers ought to be made to tell how they would vote.

After several members declined offices because they expected to vote for Taft, Tommy Taggart, Jr., was elected a member of the Executive Committee.

HERRICK SAYS OHIO IS TAFT'S.

CLEVELAND WORKINGMEN SHOW BIG MAJORITY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Former Gov. Myron T. Herrick of Ohio came to Republican national headquarters today and made the following statement:

"The best evidence that Ohio will remain true to Republican faith, is found in the attitude of the labor element of that State. A few days ago two polls were taken in the railroad shops at Cleveland, which resulted as follows: Taft, 1744; Bryan, 510; doubt, 491."

The Republicans of Ohio have concluded to put aside their local quarrels and vote for Taft and Sherman. The labor people, particularly, feel that in voting for Taft, they are voting to continue McKinley's ideas, which brought them out of the depths. Senator Foraker, while not actively engaged in the campaign, is too patriotic to want to see Bryan elected. The strong tide for Taft set in from the day he began speaking in Ohio."

"Another thing which has strengthened the faith of the Republicans in Ohio was the appearance there of Gov. Hughes."

Chairman Hitchcock leaves for Chicago tomorrow afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM.

Thomas L. W.—who departed political life, October 18, last. Upon my faith, he was a noble youth. He loved his place, but more he loved the truth.

That piercing eye, that stony, fearless stare. When duty called, O W—, you were there!

When evil deeds did a doubtful deed, Those strong young arms enfolded them with spell.

How safe we felt, ah, what intense security. Was ours when W— worked for social purity!

And when he stopped our drinking, we rejoiced. And every eye, instead of tongue, was moist.

The good he did, the world will never know. Unless Tobias Earl shall print it. Oh, Tobias Earl, it's now no time to stop. And let your Woolly's woolly memory drop!

Ah, in the forum, how that voice would ring. A cause celebre he made of everything! The city fathers trembled-d-d in their chairs.

And said they couldn't stand such daily scares. But oh, how honest soon they all became. This pure young speaker made them blush with shame.

The more they snored, the more he held his ground. And thundered till you couldn't hear a sound!

"And what was his reward?" you seem to say. Why, Mr. Earl was passing near one day.

"Sounds, that's a sermon, gad, sir, nothing less." He gasped, "and suitable for the Express!"

O noble fellow, O so young to die! Oh, let me weep or sigh, or try to sigh!

As our beer we sip, let's drop a tear. (It's all we still may give) upon his bier.

ABATING CITY SMOKE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Electrication of all the tracks of the Illinois Central Railroad Company within the limits of Chicago, was authorized at the annual meeting of stockholders of that road, held here today.

The change from steam to electricity must, according to the resolution, "proceed with all reasonable dispatch."

The Illinois Central tracks entering the city run along the lake shore through a well-to-do residence district, and are used constantly by the company in the suburban, through and local freight traffic.

The smoke and dust arising therefrom have long been objects of attack by persons living along the line.

The board of directors of the road also passed a resolution, prior to the stockholders' meeting, asserting the desirability of all railroads entering the city doing all in their power to minimize the smoke nuisance.

The stockholders elected John G. Shedd, of Chicago, to fill the vacancy in the board of directors made by the retirement of J. D. W. Cutting. The other retiring directors were re-elected.

brought by Mr. Mann.

CRIME BRIEFS.
Swedish College Man a Suicide.
SAN JOSE, Oct. 21.—Napoleon Ring-strom, a graduate of the College of Atenas, Sweden, committed suicide here today by hanging himself from the bed post in his room, in a local lodging-house. He is said to belong to a prominent and wealthy family in Stockholm, and have received remittances from the old country. His health is said to have been the cause of his act.

Fatal End to Old Feud.
DADEVILLE (Ala.) Oct. 21.—Jack
Henderson, a farmer of Tallapoosa county, was shot and killed on the Fletcher Turner, representative in the result of an old feud between the men.

steal a valuable painting by William Keith, displayed in the gallery of a

TRAVELS FOR HOURS.
For hours he traveled in this manner, the sun his only guide. When night came Taylor, still afraid to approach a house, made his couch on a bed of leaves and slept until early morning. About 8 o'clock this morning Judge Taylor, deciding that he would then be safe for him to make inquiry at a farm house, followed a path and shortly led into a rough road.
Within a few minutes the feeling man came upon the home of Luther Rankin, overseer for the extensive Harris estate, where the fugitive was given breakfast.

MOB LEADER TALKS.
"The leader of the mob talked with us, telling us we were associating too much with Judge Harris and were taking entirely too much interest in the case. He said that the course of Harris and the West Tennessee Land Company in prohibiting free fishing was causing the starvation of women and children and that something had to be done.

Inspector, Says Bishop.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society, through its various officers, yesterday notified priests in the Catholic parishes of Los Angeles to watch for an importer who has been attempting to collect money in the name of the society. According to descriptions of the man, he is a man of about 40 years of age, with a book purporting to be signed by St. Rev. Bishop Thomas J. Conaty, authorizing him to gather money for the society. The society is a forger, declares Bishop Conaty.

Further evidence, if any were needed, of the sentiment toward the leading national political candidates, was given yesterday by a poll of voters on a local train from San Bernardino to Los Angeles. The count of noses showed beyond doubt that Taft is the only man. Of the forty-seven possible voters on the train, thirty-eight of them announced their determination to vote for Taft and prosperity. Only nine could be found who were willing to speak of their allegiance to the Democratic aspirant, Capt. John C. Brown of this city made the poll.

No Clasp-trap Positions of every description will be rigidly excluded from the Made in Southern California Exposition, according to General Manager Newman, who stated yesterday that he had been swamped with applications for all sorts of schemes, which usually infest transactions of this character, but that he had rigidly excluded them all, and that only legitimate manufacturing and industrial institutions of this section of the State will be permitted to place their products on exhibition or on sale at the big fair which will open in November.

The Knights of Courage Boys' Club will appear in an original entertainment, entitled "The Deep Sea Minstrels," this evening in the Guild Hall of St. Athanasius Church, No. 468 Custer avenue. The organization has been established under the auspices of the City Mission Society of the Episcopal church, and under the leadership of Edward Hopkins about thirty young men and boys have been trained. They have given several musical and dramatic entertainments in the past two years. This evening's proceeds will go to the "Mile of Pennies" fund, now gathering in St. Athanasius parish. The house has been nearly sold out. In addition to the minstrels, there will be a short vaudeville program.

Stanton W.R.C. No. 14 will postpone the business meeting on Friday evening, Oct. 2, to the 10th, because of the death of a member in Simpson Auditorium in honor of Gov. Gillett.

PICTURESQUE SCENES.

Fiesta-Bazaar at Old Mission San Gabriel Attracts Large Crowds of People from City.

The fiesta-bazaar at the Old Mission San Gabriel was largely attended last night, people from Los Angeles and all surrounding towns having been attracted by the picturesque surroundings. An elaborate programme of Spanish songs and dances was given under the direction of Miss Grace La Rieux, to the delight of all beholders, and in response to the suggestion of those who witnessed the brilliant affair the programme will be repeated this afternoon, when it is expected that a large number of people will go out from the city. Tonight the minstrels of the Knights of Columbus will give a stupendous programme, and there will be characteristic scenes of the old days. The fiesta will continue until Saturday.

A feature last night was the "open house" entertainment in the museum, where visitors were regaled with music by Spanish artists and explanations of the history of many of the valuable relics.

FOR 38 YEARS

We have been in the leather and shoe business. We have been in the retail shoe business in this city for 15 years. We learned the leather business first. The foundation of the shoe business is the leather business. You cannot make good shoes out of poor leather. Shoes are a staple article. They are counted among the necessities of life. Shoes are sold at a wide range of prices, depending largely on the quality of leather and the workmanship. The So-e shoes for men and women, $2.50 to $5.00. The Stetson shoes for men, $5.50 to $7. The Laird Scholer shoes for children, $1.25 to $3.00. Every one of these makes are right—the leather, the workmanship, the style and the fit.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

THE news of the marriage of Harry P. Fink of Los Angeles and Miss Evelyn Landon, daughter of New York, will come as a surprise to the many friends of the couple.

Mr. Fink, who is associated with the management of the New York Clook and Suit House of this city, met Miss Landon while on a business trip to New York. A large wedding was planned for this fall, and was to have taken place at the bride's home, but on account of business, it was impossible for Mr. Fink to leave, so the service was quietly read in Holywood last week at the First Methodist Church, Rev. E. P. Ryland, an old friend of the groom officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Fink had planned a trip to Japan, which also will be postponed until later. They are domiciled in a cozy cottage at Venice, where they will receive after November 1.

WALLS SPURT WINE.

Ancona, in Italy, Convinced of Truth of Astonishing Manifestation of Alleged Spirits.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)
MILAN, Oct. 3.—Reports have just been received by the Corriere della Sera of some extraordinary occurrences in the house of M. Marracchino, a lawyer of that town—phenomena of importance to lovers of psychical research, if they can be verified, and at any rate amusing.

At first, loud knockings on the furniture of one room were heard, although when the family entered the room, they heard nothing but the tapping. After that, the electric bells rang feverishly for several minutes. The bells were supposed to be out of order, but an electrician who examined them, declared that they were in perfect order. Then, to cap the climax, one day the walls of several rooms began to throw out tiny jets of water, which were seen by other people than the members of the Marracchino family. The walls were examined by workmen who made holes here and there, but found nothing. "Sometimes," said one of the brothers Marracchino on being interviewed on the subject, "it was only the water that threw out and even coffee, and once when my father exclaimed, 'I'd much rather have wine,' we got not only a glassful from this strange source."

"We have a little sister, who, having eaten rather too much fruit one day at dinner, refused a pear which was offered her. My father took it, therefore, and locked it up in the sideboard. When, went to fetch it an hour later, it had disappeared, though the key of the sideboard had not left my father's pocket. We considered that these phenomena, whether they were a mediumistic force, which unconsciously our little sister had gratified. We followed her, when she left the dining room, and saw, the moment when she passed near a bookcase on which were several books on spiritualism, and high carved chairs. At last in the room and fall at length to the ground near the wall at the place where the water was wont to come out."

These statements have produced an enormous impression in Ancona—and that fact is significant, whether any society for psychical research would take the statements of the Marracchinos seriously or not.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES

The Times freely publishes the views of correspondents without holding them responsible for the statements made. The space of 500 words on the average is sufficient for the most. Well-written letters are more likely to be printed than those of a length.

The Society Girl.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Will any one be good enough to explain why it seems to be of benefit to a girl going on the stage to be termed a "society girl"? Surely that is not to her credit. It has been a misfortune at different times to be a witness at some of the amusements thought of by the so-called "society leaders," both in the East and West. It has always seemed to me that they were poor unfortunate ones who ought to be looked on with the same pity that is given to the inmate of insane asylums, who having reached the age of maturity, are still playing with the toys of their childhood, have not been brought up to the truth. Thanking you for the space, believe me to be a girl who would have borne that sickly title with a sense of humor.

The Spanish Necklace.

CHAPTER XXII—(Continued.)

There was no courtyard to the Palace de San Telmo, but their eyes constantly strayed to the necklaces—indeed, it continued to be a magnet to most of the party. Hester caught glances right and left, and sometimes these eyes met others with rebuke, especially in Spanish; the ladies knew no tongue but their own, and could not communicate with Miss Forde save by graceful little signs, and the language of the eye. Yet it seemed to her, when she encountered their dark glances across the golden candlesticks, that there was something indefinable behind their smiles—an expression of wonder, and was it disapproval, or—

But to the best of Hester's knowledge she had never seen these handsome haughty women in her life; why should their glances imperious interrogation? Did they suppose she had stolen the necklaces? For their gaze flashed from her throat to her face, and her face to her throat, with an expression of sarcasm and wonder. The gentlemen, her neighbors, talked to her of morning, golf and polo. "Oh, yes, indeed they play golf and polo at Madrid, and why not?" and for their part they questioned her respecting their glances imperious interrogation? Did they suppose she had stolen the necklaces? For their gaze flashed from her throat to her face, and her face to her throat, with an expression of sarcasm and wonder. The gentlemen, her neighbors, talked to her of morning, golf and polo. # THOUSANDS GREET GOVERNOR ON TOUR.

Executive and Escort in Trolley and Autos Reach Many Cities and Towns, Big Pasadena Meeting Ending Day's Work For Taft.

REACHING the Republican headquarters of protection in Southern California in a whirlwind tour of the eastern portion of the state yesterday, Gov. Gillett spoke to 2500 people in a large hall where he made a speech. In addition, he made a speech to the Whittier State Normal School, and to the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee, for that official, who had been on the tour, scheduled every day of the tour, the schedule was followed to the letter. The whole tour of the state was a success.

It was a Democratic free-trade policy, and the industries of Southern California, and the utility of making a great harbor at San Pedro if the industry that is to be built is to be destroyed.

The Governor had contemplated a tour of the state, but he did not reckon on the success of the tour. The tour was a success. The Governor had contemplated a tour of the state, but he did not reckon on the success of the tour. The tour was a success.

The return trip to Los Angeles was made at high speed, the car traveling a mile a minute for seven miles east of Los Angeles. The Governor had contemplated a tour of the state, but he did not reckon on the success of the tour. The tour was a success.

R. Davis and W. I. Morrison, the two last named having been with the party as a Pasadena escort all day. An informal reception was held in the hotel lobby, after which dinner was served by the Pasadena committee to sixty guests, the menu being another turkey dinner with abundant courses.

THE GOVERNOR'S ESCORT. Gov. Gillett was not without his full escort at any time during the day. And of the forty who made up the escort only one was a woman—Mrs. John L. McNab, wife of the Governor's platform partner, who enjoyed the campaign as much as did her husband, and who was one of the most enthusiastic auditors of the speeches. The personnel of the escort included: President Charles J. Nimmer of the German-American Taft Club, who with M. T. Light and Julius Conrad, bore the flags that headed the parade and fluttered from the car windows; George R. Black, Gen. M. H. Sherman, George R. Davis, James H. Campbell, Willis I. Morrison, Dr. W. W. Beckett, E. A. Miller, James Clark, Judge H. C. Gooding, Judge W. H. Jamison, Judge R. H. Jackson, H. A. Pedler, George Hirsch, Dr. E. T. Garrett, Dr. H. G. Cogswell, William McLean, Lee C. Gates, Thomas Hughes, J. D. Whitcomb and George R. Pillsbury.

Gov. Gillett will rest today, as he will make only one speech, that at a morning rally at San Bernardino. Tomorrow he will take an convention of the National Rivers and Harbor Congress, which convenes in Washington, December 2, and the meeting of the Merchants Association of New York, to consider the advisability of holding a convention for the discussion of a national currency reform.

COURT SITS ON BROOKS. Although J. Marion Brooks was eager to address the justices of the Supreme Court at length yesterday on the weighty subject of the disbarment of Henry E. Willis, the august tribunal hastily shut off all threats of eloquence and took the case "under advisement without argument." The certificate of Attorney Willis's imprisonment in the County Jail upon conviction of embezzlement was presented by the proper authorities, and, according to the general rules of procedure, the disbarment follows as a matter of course. A number of other cases were submitted on appeal. The court will hear cases today and tomorrow in department.

MAKES STOMACH MISERY VANISH

STOPS FOOD FERMENTATING AND RELIEVES DYSPEPSIA IN JUST ABOUT FIVE MINUTES

The most obstinate cases of Stomach trouble and indigestion find a prompt cure in Diapepsin which is absolutely harmless and tastes like candy. It will also regulate your digestion so you can eat your favorite food.

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is feeble, and nothing tempts you or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take some Diapepsin.

MAKE INDIANS INTO FARMERS.

Uncle Sam Spending Millions in the Effort.

Will Be Slow Process, Says Government Agent.

Work of Reclaiming Waste Is Progressing.

W. H. Code, chief engineer of the government Indian Service, returned to Los Angeles yesterday, after a three-month tour of inspection of the work being prosecuted under his supervision in the North and Middle West. He is very enthusiastic over the work being done in behalf of the Indian wards of Uncle Sam, and states that the recent appropriations by Congress have been very liberal.

The annual appropriation, both special and general, approximates $1,000,000, and it is the intention of the government, Code says, to ultimately give every Indian in the country a tract of land well supplied with water for its proper irrigation.

"It will be a slow process, however," said the engineer, "to convert the northern Indians into thrifty and successful farmers. Indians, whose forefathers since time was young lived by the chase, cannot be expected in a few generations to settle down to the uneventful and hard-working life of the average farmer."

SOME GOOD FARMERS.
"The Indians of the Southwest are far superior in this respect; many of the little tribes are accomplishing wonders with a supply of water so limited as to be almost useless for anything aside from domestic purposes. This is especially true of the Mission Indians of California, and work is now under way on several of the reservations in this state to improve conditions."

"Wells are being bored on the Pechangas, Soboba, Coachella, St. Augustine and Morongo reservations, and artesian wells are drilled on others. "The field covered by the arid lands last summer," said Code, "comprises reservations in Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Idaho, Wyoming and Utah. In Oregon, on the beautiful Klamath Reservation, work is about to be begun for draining a large marsh, approximately 8,000 acres in extent. This land, when reclaimed, will make magnificent natural hay land, and when cultivated will yield abundant crops of hardy grains and grasses and a variety of root crops."

"In Washington it is hoped that arrangements will be effected for the Yakima Reservation to come within the scope of the Yakima reclamation project. These Indians have been allotted their lands; hence, as citizens, must decide for themselves whether they will accept the provisions of the Jones bill, which provides that they may sell a portion of their large holdings to obtain funds with which to acquire water rights for the retained portion."

"There are approximately 100,000 acres of irrigable land on this reservation, in a valley where lands sold for $50 per acre for sage-brush lands, to as high as $200 per acre for full fruit-bearing orchards."

SELL AT 'WAR PRICES.'
"In Nevada work is progressing rapidly in the construction of a system to cover the allotments of the Indians of the former Walker River Reservation. At the time of my late visit I found the Indians enjoying a large degree of prosperity, due to the mining activities at Hawthorne and elsewhere. Everything they raise sells for war figures, and labor is most plentiful."

"In Idaho, construction is under way on a large system which will irrigate 30,000 acres of lands on the Fort Hall Reservation, and 12,000 acres of lands immediately tributary to Pocatello, belonging to white settlers. Since the thriving town of Pocatello has no cultivated lands adjacent to the city the citizens are interested in the project, which will involve an outlay of approximately $750,000."

"In Wyoming, irrigation work is being rapidly pushed on canals and laterals designed to ultimately cover an area of approximately 75,000 acres on the diminished Wind River Reservation. Many thousands of acres are now fully supplied with the necessary canals and laterals. The irrigable lands of the miners, farmers or stockmen on this reservation may be leased for a period of twenty years, and on very reasonable terms."

"The last point visited," said Code, "was the former Uintah Reservation, in Utah, where the government is expending a special appropriation of $200,000 in building extensive systems for the irrigation of the allotments of the Uncompaghe, Uintah and White River Utes. Here also a large area of land is supplied with irrigation facilities, a large portion of which may be leased for long periods on most favorable terms."

HAVE RETURNED HOME.
"Several hundred of the White River Utes, who were greatly dissatisfied, due to the opening of the reservation, left their homes with the avowed purpose of never returning. After a period of two years spent in Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas, they were escorted back to their lands in Utah by a small troop of cavalry, arriving at the end of their journey on October 14."

"Many other projects are under way or contemplated throughout the West, and it can be seen that the government is not idle in its endeavor to better the condition of its wards. The Indian Irrigation Service enjoys a close cooperation with the Reclamation Service in planning for the reclaiming of Indian lands, especially where a reservation is located contiguous to one of the large river systems, as in the instance of the Yuma Reservation in this state."

WOMAN HAS VANISHED.
Miss Ida Gibbons, 35 years of age, who was detained at the Police Station several days ago, after she had created a scene at the Chief's office and later turned over to the care of her relatives, has disappeared. The police were requested yesterday to keep a sharp lookout for her. Miss Gibbons stated that policemen were insulting her. She acted so peculiarly that she was sent to the detention ward of the Receiving Hospital. As soon as her relatives took charge of her she ran away. The woman is falling very ill, and the surgeons at the hospital to be mentally unbalanced.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING.
In honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding, Police Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Williams entertained a large party of their friends at their home, No. 210 Prospect Place, last night. Lieut. Williams has been an officer of the Los Angeles police department for twenty years. His friends showered him with gifts last night and the display of silverware was beautiful.

GOLD-SEEKER KILLED.

A veritable Aladdin's dream of incredible riches in the form of placer gold, but when the Los Angeles argonauts arrived in the supposedly wonderful gold region they found there was no difficulty in finding gold, but it proved to be four flimsy. Expensive machinery was needed to save it. Now and then, a pan would net something worth while, but on the whole the Los Angeles men found that the reports had been grossly exaggerated.

FOOD SCANTY.
In addition, it was found all but impossible to get anything to eat in the country. Even at the capital city nothing could be bought in necessary quantities, and the prospectors found themselves facing starvation as soon as the supplies they brought with them were exhausted—which of course was in a short time. An attempt to forage on the country showed that the natives could occasionally be relied on to provide a few eggs and the usual Spanish tortillas, but such provender could not satisfy Americans. The fortune hunters had been told that the mountains were filled with game, but many days' hunting proved that deer were scarce and wary.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING.
In honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding, Police Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Williams entertained a large party of their friends at their home, No. 210 Prospect Place, last night. Lieut. Williams has been an officer of the Los Angeles police department for twenty years. His friends showered him with gifts last night and the display of silverware was beautiful.

TROPICAL DOWNPOURS.
The awful thunder and lightning, the accompanying tropical electric storms, Clough reports as something terrific. Every night, about 6 o'clock, one of these violent electric hurricanes known only in the tropics literally began tearing at the hills and forests to pieces. The pleating experience of being in the storm center of a hurricane zone, with terrific shocks of lightning and detonations of thunder, trees falling round about, and the cookhouse knocked to kindling wood, soon became a regular evening entertainment.

United States consular reports have long been painting vivid pictures of the prodigious riches which are just below the surface of this Bar, in inaccessible Central Honduras, but the actual facts, as uncovered by personal visits by the Los Angeles gold seekers, are far different.

"NOTHING IN IT."
"After making a thorough exploration of the river," continued Clough, "we concluded that two ounces a day was the limit, and when this was divided among four men and expenses struck off, the work was not worth the effort. Besides, there are only seven months in the year that mining may be carried on. For the other five months the country is inundated by torrential floods." Mr. Clough told The Times yesterday.

"We found also that from 11 o'clock in the morning to about 3 in the afternoon each day it is all a man's life is worth to leave the shady places. The tropical sun beats down with terrific violence, meaning death to a white American. Thus, the actual hours open to mining operations are decidedly reduced. As for the natives, they are inexpressibly indolent.

To sum it up, we figured that the profits division of gold, for our party of four, would not exceed $100 a year and we threw up the sponge."

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Friday Morning Club.
The Friday Morning Club may claim the honor of opening the social season; for the elaborate reception which was tendered David Warfield, the dramatic artist, yesterday afternoon was distinctly a social function. Club women and society butterflies thronged the club rooms, halls and even the yard, for the pleasure of hearing and seeing Mr. Warfield, just as a plain American citizen bereft of his delicious dialect.

The actor was presented by Mrs. Shelly Tolhurst, president of the club, in a most graceful speech, which Mr. Warfield said almost gave him stage fright. Mrs. Tolhurst said but one word was big enough and yet simple enough to give one an idea of Mr. Warfield, and that was he was simple.

He was great because of his simplicity. Mr. Warfield's talk was characteristic of the man, just such a talk as one would know was his, even if it was not signed.

"After all," he began, "there is little for us actors to say about drama. It is you who produce the theater, to tell what you would have us do, and we must obey."

"The actor must go to the patron to get advice, for it is he who says: 'Here are life's problems and criticisms; here is a human portrait we love; here is a character to show; here is a poem revealing beauty, and love and life.'"

"Now what kind of life—that kind of characters for the stage will you have?"

"First of all, you seem to want a drama of humanity, a play containing characters one meets in this life of today."

"The first and most essential element for successful drama is humanity. We must have some smiles and a few tears, because life, you know, is not all smiles."

"Your evening in the theater has been well spent, indeed, if you have been amused and if you leave it feeling better toward humanity."

Mr. Warfield responded with one of Whitcomb Riley's poems, "My Old Friend Jim."

Ruskin Art Club was held yesterday morning, in the club rooms at Blanchard Hall, when the study of myths, folklore and medieval romance which has engaged the attention of the members of the club since the opening meeting, was continued.

Epics and the Persian drama were very interestingly handled in the form of a talk by Mrs. Saunders. The first drama she said, was based upon the story of five brothers, in relation which she also brought out very quaintly the oldest conundrum we have on record.

"The Shah-Nahneh," the subject of Miss Abelle Donovan's paper, was a review of a story of one of the Indian legends.

Miss Helen McCutchan, in treating of the Bhagavagita, brought out points in the Indian epic equal to Homer's Iliad.

Under the subject of "Notes on Current Rites," Mrs. Anna Sinsbaugh spoke interestingly of the Baltimore customhouse, touching especially upon the mural decorations by J. B. Millet.
